1 CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

2 (Unprofessional Conduct)

3 8. Respondent has subjected his license to disciplinary action under section 2761,
4 subdivision (a) of the Code in that on or about February 18, 2012, he engaged in unprofessional
5 conduct. The circumstances are as follows:

6 a. On or about the evening of February 18, 2012, six male juveniles who were 7 attending a birthday party at a San Diego residence, decided to play a game of "dingdong ditch."
8 The object of the game was to ring the doorbell of a random house, wait in the yard for the 9 resident to respond to the doorbell, and the first person to get scared and run away would be 10 labeled the "chicken." The six teenagers went to the residence of Respondent and rang the 11 doorbell. Respondent answered the door and became angry. Respondent went back inside his 12 home and returned with a shotgun. All the teenagers fled on their skateboards. A distance from 13 Respondent's home, the teenagers began walking. Respondent came speeding up the street in his 14 Ford Ranger. All of the teenagers scattered except for two; Respondent racked his shotgun and 15 pointed it at the two teenagers and ordered them to lay face down in the street. Respondent took 16 their skateboards and threw them into the bed of his truck. Respondent then ordered the two 17 teenagers into the bed of his truck at gunpoint. Respondent drove off at a high rate of speed and 18 took the two teenagers to his garage where he kept them hostage. Respondent took the teenagers' 19 names and phone numbers and threatened to kill them and their families if they reported the 20 incident to anyone. Both of them were released 30 minutes later; they returned to the birthday
21 party and told their friends they did not want to report the incident due to the threats. On March 22 22, 2012, the mother of one of the victims reported the incident to the San Diego Police 23 Department after she uncovered details of the kidnapping on her son's Facebook.

24 b. As a result of Respondent's arrest, on or about August 29, 2012, in a criminal 25 proceeding entitled People of the State of California v. Adrian Chien Miu, in San Diego County
26 Superior Court, case number SCD240269, Respondent pled guilty to two counts of violating 27 Penal Code section 245, subdivision (a)(4), assault with force likely to produce great bodily
28 injury, counts added to the complaint by interlineation. The court reduced the two felony counts

1 to misdemeanors pursuant to Penal Code section 17, subdivision (b)(4). The court dismissed the 2 original charges of two counts of false imprisonment by violence, menace, fraud, deceit (Pen.
3 Code, §§ 236/237(a)), and two counts of making a criminal threat (Pen. Code, § 422)), plus a 4 firearm enhancement for each count, pursuant to the plea agreement.

5 c. As a result of the guilty plea, on or about August 29, 2012, Respondent was 6 released on his own recognizance and sentencing was deferred for 18-24 months on the condition
7 he complete an eight-week anger management course, perform 40 hours of community service,
8 waive his Fourth Amendment rights, not possess any firearms or deadly weapons, and to stay 9 away from his victims. At sentencing, Respondent agreed that at his sentencing, currently set for 10 February 28, 2014, his conditions of probation would include three weekends in county jail, and 11 15 days of public work service.

12 PRAYER

13 WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein alleged, 14 and that following the hearing, the Board of Registered Nursing issue a decision:

15 1. Revoking or suspending Registered Nurse License Number 602413, issued to Adrian
16 C. Han;

17 2. Ordering Adrian C. Han to pay the Board of Registered Nursing the reasonable costs
18 of the investigation and enforcement of this case, pursuant to Business and Professions Code 19 section 125.3;

20 3. Taking such other and further action as deemed necessary and proper.
